

Level I Officials course for Cross Country Ski Races

A Level 1 official will be able to:

- Perform all the duties of “secondary officials” and “administrative officials” for Olympic and Popular Cross-Country Ski (Loppet) type competitions.
- Possess a general knowledge of the Cross Country Rules and Regulations.
- Possess a general knowledge of the Competition Committee structure for Olympic and Loppet type competitions.

Course Particulars:

- Theoretical and practical training will be conducted in a one day course.
- Registration is through <https://cccofficials.moonami.com>
- Registrants will be accepted on to the course by the Course Conductor (Instructor).
- Web based pre-learning will be expected and a pre-course test will be conducted on the structure and governance of our sport.
- The course will cover the overall Event Organizing Committee make-up and duties, the Competition Committee and organization, an overview of the different types of competitions and formats, and specific areas and responsibilities in course preparation and track setting, stadium layout and grooming, the competition secretariat, timekeeping and results systems, competition security, and competition safety. The course will include a demonstration of manual timing with mock race practice in start and finish procedures.
- Participants will be expected to acquire sufficient knowledge to be able to function as a secondary or administrative official in low-level competitions under the direction of Level 2 and 3 officials. At an awareness level, participants are introduced to the key areas of risk management as it relates to cross-country event hosting.
- Qualification will be based on passing a post course test on-line test.

Prerequisites:

- A desire to help run cross country skiing events, and a willingness to attend a training course to become a certified official.
- Recommended minimum age is 16 years.

Register & Prepare:

Since this new hosting service is also a Moodle based environment you should find it pretty easy to navigate your way around if you participated in our previous E-Learning site

One major change with this new hosting service is that we have accepted a finite number of active users as a means of ...
